COMICS

Welcome to this issue of PREVIEWS! This is a "deluxe" advance catalog for comic collectors featuring previews of comics and specialty items -- usually available only to your retailer! Included are many different items and coming comics as well as a new detachable order form. If your store has a subscription service, this is the perfect way for you to update your monthly wants, and to let them know if you wish to purchase any special items not covered by your subscription list. Simply write in the number of copies you'd like (when ordering t-shirts please also indicate the size desired) and return the order form to your store before the deadline printed on the cover. Your retailer can then take into consideration your requests when placing their orders with distributors. Plus, you get the satisfaction of knowing, in advance, what new and exciting titles and stories will be available!

Here's an explanation of some terms and phrases used in PREVIEWS:

"GEM of the Month": These are the "Creme de la Creme", "Top Guns", the "A #1 Best-Bet Items" of the month.

"SPOTLIGHTON": These items are also of special interest to collectors.

"CLOSE UP": These items are somewhat out of the mainstream, geared toward collectors who are searching for something different and non-traditional.

"Please Inquire": This refers to certain items that might vary in price or have limited availability. In the case of limited edition books, portfolios, and button sets, it's best to let your retailer know early that you want these items, so they can place an order for you.

OFFERED AGAIN: Simply stated, these are items that have been offered before, been released to comic stores, and are "Offered Again" for those who may have missed them the first time around.

RESOLICITATION: All orders taken for these items have been cancelled (usually due to delayed production), new orders must be placed.

STILL AVAILABLE: These are items that have come out and are offered again for sale. These items may be, however, in short supply.

That's all there is to it! We hope PREVIEWS helps you, the fan, make better decisions on new titles, and helps make collecting comics much more fulfilling. See you next month!

ADVENTURE

Spotlight
On:

ALIEN NATION: THE SPARTANS #1

by Spangler, Tucker, & Groh

Los Angeles: 1991. The Tenc-tonese (Newcomers) have crash-landed on Earth and have been assimilated into American culture—or have they? A secret organization believes the Earth has much to fear if another Tenc-tonese ship should accidentally crash-land. So, they have set out to learn as much about the Newcomer's technology as they can—at any cost! This new four-part series is based on the hit movie and TV series and is produced in cooperation with 20th Century Fox.

b&w (1 of 4)$2.50

ALIEN NATION: THE SPARTANS #1--SPECIAL EDITION

by Spangler, Tucker, & Groh

This sequentially-numbered special edition of Alien Nation: The Spartans #1 will contain the entire story from the regular edition, plus additional background information on the Newcomers and their arrival on Earth. The front cover will have a foil embossed logo (like the Lensman Special Edition) and feature different cover artwork. This edition is limited to 5,000 copies. Due to the limited nature of this special issue, we anticipate allocations to occur.

NATION OF SNITCHES

by Jon Hammer

From the creator of The Drowned Girl comes this comic one-shot regarding a TV show of the not-too-distant future called "Nation of Snitches". This program invites everyday citizens to turn in fugitives and felons for big prizes. The latest episode relates the details behind a series of brutal slayings in which all of the victims were found with a cross carved into their foreheads—obviously the work of a Satanic ritual killer! But Hank Fleisch, corporate janitor, knows better. Hank, like a lot of people, is an under-appreciated genius, much too brilliant for his job; however, unlike most people, Hank works out his frustrations—by killing people! (RO)

THE MAGIC FLUTE #1

Patrick Mason and P. Craig Russell have adapted Mozart's classic fantasy opera, The Magic Flute, into a beautiful three-part series! In the opener, the Queen of the Night sets Prince Tamino on a quest to rescue her daughter, Pamina, from the evil Sarastro. Along the way, he meets the bird-catcher Papageno, who is "persuaded" to help Tamino in his quest. This is a broad, farcical tale cloaked in the facade of full-blown fantasy. The story is filled with dragons, magic, princesses, and the mysterious Fellowship and Followers of the Light. A deceptively simple tale, actually touching upon many sophisticated themes. THE EROTIC ARTWORK OF REED WALLER

by Reed Waller
This artbook features many never-before-printed pieces of art created through the years while Waller was developing the character Omaha. In it, readers will find some examples of Waller's pinup art, anatomical studies, pages from the artist's sketchbook, and commentary by Waller about the art. Included are two very early comics stories featuring funny animals in erotic situations—one of them being an early version of Omaha herself! This unique look at the art and style of Omaha creator Reed Waller, is available in a softcover and signed and numbered hardcover edition. Both versions will be shrinkwrapped for protection.

MEGATON MAN VOLUME 1

by Donald Simpson
This 144-page edition reprints the original Megaton Man #1-4 in their entirety. This volume presents the first adventures of Megaton Man (aka Trent Phloog), whose love for a beautiful newspaper columnist is only eclipsed by her distaste for his super-hero identity! Plus, his involvement with the Megatropolis Quartet (especially the lovely See-Thru Girl!); the government's power over the super-hero; and the escape of the Cosmic Cue-Ball (due to a slightly moronic blunder on the part of MM). This hilarious collection is available in softcover and signed hardcover editions.

FAUST SAGA #1

This title features two different Faust storylines, featuring the Faustus of two separate eras. "Faust: Singha's Talons" by David Quinn and Mark Beachum of Flare, features a female Faust—Joanna Tan—a Chinese-American collector of ancient oriental weapons, whose search for the legendary Singha's Talons leads her to an opium crime ring, in China of 1964. The second feature is "Faust: 2020", by David Quinn, Tim & Joe Vigil, and Rick Bryant, in which Giant Step, a teenage super-genius, learns of the talons through a computer link-up—and discovers that people have begun to turn up dead—very dead! Both of these new stories will feature occasional nudity, and all of the violence of the original title—but with no graphic sexual content. Cover by Mark Beachum. Bi-monthly.

DYNAMIC ANATOMY

by Burne Hogarth

Unlike traditional anatomy texts, which explain muscular and skeletal structure from a scientific standpoint, Dynamic Anatomy brilliantly reveals the live, expressive structure of the human form from the artist's point of view. With 300 remarkable illustrations, Burne Hogarth shows how to render the anatomical details of the human form—both male and female—in motion and at rest. With its sound, practical methods and easy to use format, this volume is indispensable to the artist who wishes to render the human form accurately and artistically.

BOB CLAMPETT PRODS., INC.

We are pleased to offer this unique series of hand-painted animation cels, based on the classic cartoons of animation maestro, Bob Clampett. From the creation of Porky Pig to the merry adventures of Beany and Cecil, Clampett has provided hours and hours of animation's most classic moments. Each of these collectible animation cels was reproduced from Clampett's original drawing and hand-painted. The single character cels are limited to only 250 copies each. The multi-character "scene" cels are limited to 500 copies each. You can also look forward to a series of Bugs Bunny commemorative cels later this year.

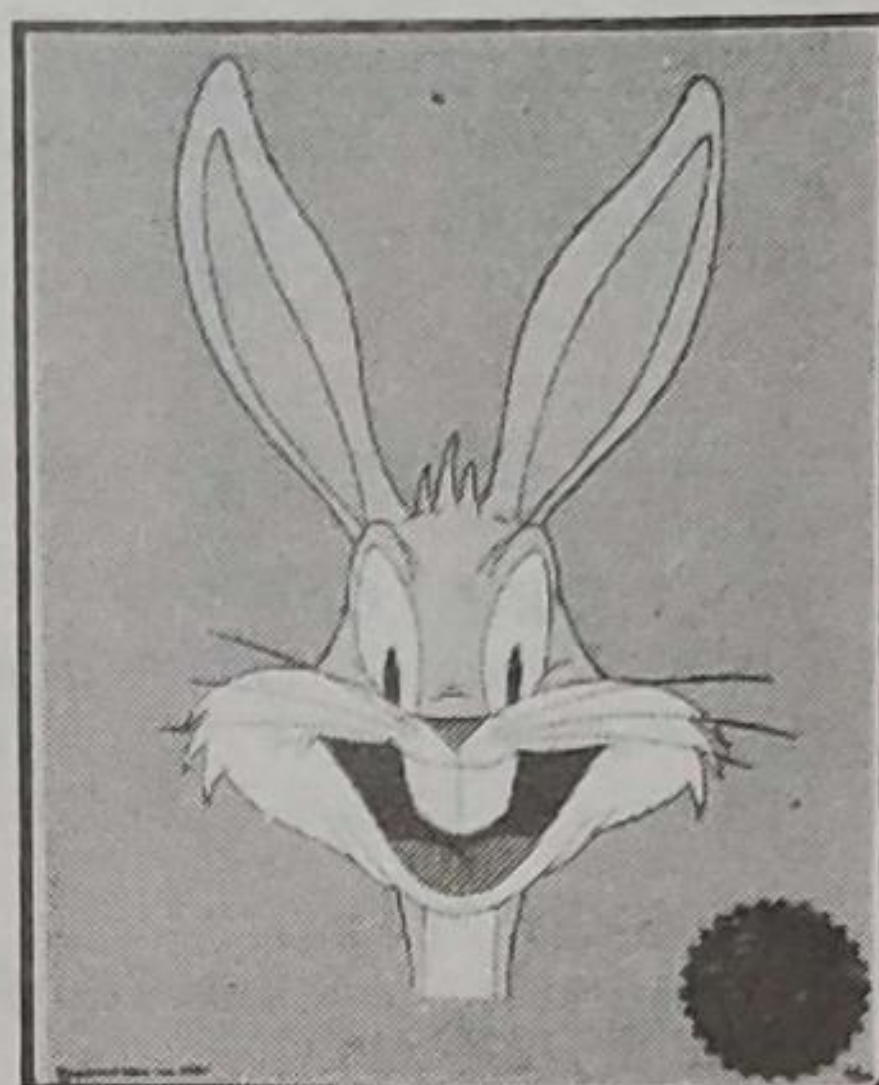

THE CARTOON WORLD OF BOB CLAMPETT POSTER

by Bob Clampett

This fine art poster was produced in conjunction with an exhibition of Clampett's work at the American Museum of the Moving Image. The image measures 24x36 and features a caricature of Clampett "playing rabbit" as Bugs Bunny (in director's chair) looks on. The image is flanked by a succession of the cartoon characters Clampett is most famous for: Daffy Duck, Porky Pig, Tweety, Beany & Cecil, Elmer Fudd, and more.

FC, 24x36$25.00

Scene Cels

BUGS BUNNY & BEAKY BUZZARD CEL

This cel and background were reproduced from the 1942 cartoon "Bugs Bunny Gets The Boid", in which Bugs is hunted by a little buzzard who was sent out by his mother to bring home "a little rabbit or something for dinner". Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

FC, 16x20$300.00

TWEETY AND THE CAT CEL

This cel and background were reproduced from the 1944 cartoon "Birdy and the Beast", Tweety's second appearance and first starring role. In this scene, Tweety is wandering into the cat's mouth, in which he will soon light a match when it gets too dark! Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

FC, 16x20$300.00

DAFFY DUCK AND SHERLOCK HOLMES CEL

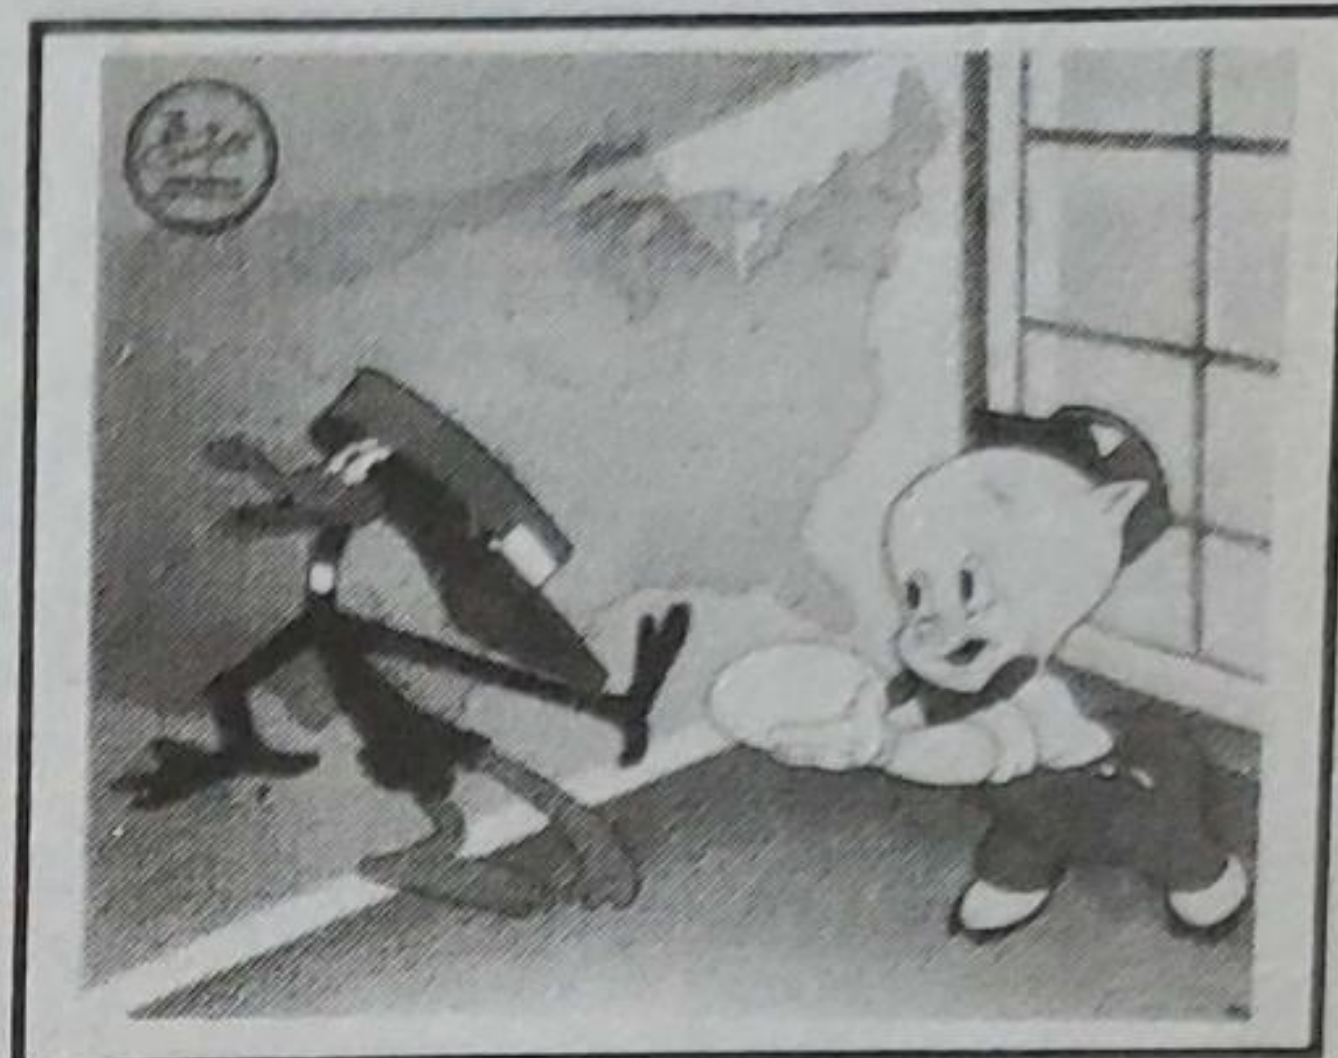

This cel and background were reproduced from the classic 1946 cartoon "The Great Piggy Bank Robbery", in which Daffy loses his piggy bank and dreams of being "Duck Twacy, the Great Detective". In his dream he encounters a virtual "Rogue's Gallery" of villains including Jukebox Jaw and Neon Noodle, and must deal with another great detective when he "horns in" on his investigation! Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

FC, 16x20$300.00

PORKY PIG AND DAFFY DUCK CEL

This cel and background were reproduced from the 1946 cartoon "Baby Bottleneck", in which Porky replaces the over-worked Stork as Traffic Manager assigned to deliver babies, with Daffy as his number one assistant. In this scene, Porky is ordering Daffy to sit on—and hatch—a mysterious egg. Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

FC, 16x20$300.00

BEANYLAND CEL

This cel and background were reproduced from the 1962 Beany & Cecil cartoon. In this scene, Beany, Cecil, and Uncle Captain Huffman have ventured to the Moon to build their very own theme park. This was a good-humored spoof of Disneyland and featured rides such as "20,000 Leaks Under the Sea" and "Day-After-Tomorrow Land". Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

FC, 16x20$300.00

CECIL AND THE WILDMAN CEL

This cel and background were reproduced from the 1962 cartoon "The Wildman of Wildsville", in which Cecil tries to capture Go Man Van Gogh, the surrealist painter. In this scene, Go Man tells Cecil: "Man, How Square Can You Get?" Triple-matted, with a gold seal of authenticity printed on the cel. Hand-numbered.

BUNS PRINT

by Mort Walker

This lithographic print reproduces the censored Beetle Bailey Sunday strip in which General Halftrack sends out a message informing Sgt. Snorkel that he will inspect the platoons "buns" that morning (actually meaning to write guns). No one wishes to question the General's orders—so he is met with a 21-bun salute (with the entire platoon mooning the General!). The strip was considered to "racy" for the Sunday funnies, and the "buns" were replaced with buns (the kind that come out of the oven). This six-color lithograph is printed on acid-free Saxony paper, and is signed and numbered by Mort Walker. Limited to 395 copies.

SON OF THE LICENSING ZONE

This month, we take another look at the wonderful world of licensed characters, with a special emphasis on the two power players of the 1990 licensing season: Dick Tracy and The Simpsons! As long as new products, based on these two hot properties continue to come in, we will continue to offer you what we feel are the best of the bunch! Although this month's "Zone" isn't as big as our previous sections, you can be sure that as we close out the summer in next month's Previews, we'll have an even larger selection of products for you! As previously noted, we will often not receive goods on a timely basis, with major chains and department stores receiving goods before we do. We cannot guarantee timely delivery of products produced or manufactured outside of the Direct Market.

BLOOM COUNTY: HAPPY TRAILS

by Berke Breathed

Bloom County may be gone—but it's not forgotten! For nearly nine years, the Bloom County gang has entertained millions of readers, but now they've stepped aside to make way for Berkeley Breathed's new series. This edition collects the strips from the last year of its syndication and includes all of the "good-bye" strips that closed the series and set the stage for Outland. Includes 204 b&w and 34 color strips. (Little, Brown & Co.)

YOUNG BLUEBERRY #1: BLUEBERRY'S SECRETby Charlier & Moebius

These are the early adventures of Mike Donovan, as we follow him from his father's prospering Southern plantation to his service in the U.S. Cavalry. But what makes a Southern-born man turn against his fellow Southerners during the Civil War and stampede 3000 wild mustangs meant for the Confederate Army? And just where did he get the name "Blueberry"? The answers to these and other questions can be found in this newly translated series which predates Epic/Marvel's own Blueberry series of reprints.

SC, 8x11, 56pg, FC$7.95

YOUNG BLUEBERRY #2: A YANKEE NAMED BLUEBERRYby Charlier & Moebius

Blueberry is captured behind Confederate lines and is taken to a POW camp by his old enemy Norton. Blueberry escapes, and returns home to see what remains of the family plantation and intercepts a Rebel courier with orders outlining a major attack on the Union. He takes the information to the Union, but is not believed and is set for execution as a spy!
